

ESCALANTE HERITAGE HOLE-IN-THE-ROCK*CENTER JOINT RESOLUTION

2010 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

---

LONG TITLE*General Description:

This joint resolution of the Legislature expresses support for the construction of a Heritage Center in Escalante, Utah, to highlight the journey of the San Juan/Hole-in-the-Rock colonizing expedition during the winter of 1879-80 and to preserve the history of the most difficult colonizing expedition in all of the West.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- ▶ expresses support for the Escalante Heritage Center's effort to preserve the history of the Hole-in-the-Rock pioneers, the history of the early explorations of the Escalante Valley, and the settlement of the town Escalante in 1876 through the heroic efforts of members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to follow the call of their leader to colonize and tame a part of the frontier.

Special Clauses:

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, in 1879 citizens of towns throughout Southern Utah answered the call of John Taylor, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, to colonize one of the most remote parts of the Territory of Utah;

WHEREAS, taking what they thought would be a shortcut to the San Juan area, they traveled through the frontier town of Escalante, which was settled in 1876, to the Colorado River where they blasted and chiseled out a road in the crack of the canyon wall, descending one thousand feet to the Colorado River;

WHEREAS, while this was the most difficult part of the trek, it was only one of many difficulties they experienced before reaching their destination and establishing a settlement at

32 Bluff, Utah;

33 WHEREAS, what they thought would be a six-week journey took six months;

34 WHEREAS, the road these individuals created on their journey became the first road in 35 the Territory of Utah, traveling from west to east, to be funded by the legislature, though it cost 36 only a few thousand dollars to purchase dynamite to blast through the walls of the 37 Hole-in-the-Rock;

38 WHEREAS, during the winter of 1879-80, 250 men, women, and children, trailing over
39 1000 head of livestock, blazed a trail through 200 miles of the most rugged terrain in the West;

40 WHEREAS, Elizabeth Decker, a member of the colonizing party described it as ". . .
41 the roughest country you or anybody else ever saw. It's nothing in the world but rocks and 42 holes, hills and hollows";

43 WHEREAS, during their six-month journey, the San Juan colonizers were tempered
44 like fine steel for the formidable task of nurturing relations with the Native Americans, tilling
45 the land, and establishing law and order;

46 WHEREAS, in reaching the San Juan area the colonizers demonstrated unwavering
47 faith and devotion to duty and set the standard for future generations;

48 WHEREAS, in 2002 the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints donated nine acres
49 of land in Escalante to build a Heritage Center, and also donated a water meter, which was
50 critical in allowing the project to move ahead;

51 WHEREAS, in 2007 the Richfield office of the Utah Department of Transportation
52 granted the Escalante Heritage Center $125,000 to do a feasibility study, which was performed
53 by Landmark Design of Salt Lake City and completed in 2008;

54 WHEREAS, in 2009 the Salt Lake City office of the Utah Department of 55 Transportation granted the Escalante Heritage Center $500,000 to build the first of four phases
56 of the project;

57 WHEREAS, the Escalante Heritage Center is a nonprofit corporation engaged in raising
58 private and public funds to construct and maintain a center dedicated to preserving the history
59 and heritage of the Hole-in-the-Rock pioneers and the Escalante area;

60 WHEREAS, the Garfield County Commission fully supports this endeavor and is the 61 government sponsor of the project;

62 WHEREAS, the Mayor and City Council of Escalante fully supports the Escalante

63 Heritage Center in its endeavor to preserve the history and heritage of the area;

64 WHEREAS, the Mormon Corridor/Highway 89 project has declared the building of the 65 Escalante Heritage Center the top project on its priority list;

66 WHEREAS, the Escalante Heritage Center Board has received letters of support from
67 officials of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the offices of both Senators Hatch
68 and Bennett, and the office of Congressman Jim Matheson; and

69 WHEREAS, the Escalante Heritage Center Board has the support of officials of the 70 Grand Staircase Escalante National Monument, who feel that a science center on one side of 71 the town of Escalante and a history center on the other side would represent bookends of 72 learning for everyone visiting the area:

73 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah
74 expresses its support for the Escalante Heritage/Hole-in-the-Rock Center Board's efforts to
75 preserve the history of the Hole-in-the-Rock pioneers and the settlement of the Escalante area,
76 and to construct a building in which to tell the story of these historic pioneers.

77 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Escalante
78 Heritage Center Board, the Garfield County Commission, the Mayor and City Council of 79 Escalante City, the Richfield and Salt Lake City offices of the Utah Department of 80 Transportation, Landmark Design, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and to the 81 members of Utah's congressional delegation.
