Governor Calls Special Session for Monday

Salt Lake City – Just after noon today, Governor Gary R. Herbert signed a proclamation convening the Utah Legislature in a Special Session to address seven legislative issues next Monday, October 3, at 9:00 a.m.

“Redistricting is an important responsibility that the Utah Constitution assigns to the Legislature. Several other issues have come to my attention which I have added to the call for the Legislature to consider while they are in special session. These are, in large measure, technical and clean-up amendments to state law.”

Among the items the Governor has asked the Legislature to consider are: changes to workers’ compensation insurance requirements; modifications to the requirement that certain members of the Board of Regents represent less populous counties; and adding the presidential primary to the regular primary ballot. The complete text of the proclamation can be found at:

Speaker Lockhart-

I will open with a note of appreciation for the public service you offer. I realize it is a large amount of work. I am contacting you to voice my disappointment over the proposed redistricting map. I live in Salt Lake City. My parents live in Murray and my sister lives in Sandy. If the proposed map is approved, All three households in my family will be in different districts. We live less than 15 miles apart from each other, yet I will be voting for the same person as my relatives in St. George.

This is CRAZY! Please, be compassionate and look at what is best for people on a local level. While all Utahn's share certain common concern over issues such as open space, water, new energy sources (Please support solar energy. My company would love to hire more people if we could have more tax incentive for solar like fossil fuels receive). Beyond those common issues, we choose to live in certain areas of the state which have differing LOCAL issues. How can my representative focus on issues that are urban, which is where I live and give equal attention to rural issues? The proposed map spreads 3 of the 4 districts far too thin.

I won't make accusations of gerrymandering. I will say the map is a shows a blatant disregard for local politics.

The final Congressional Redistricting proposal now before you is nothing short of cynical. It virtually disenfranchises the remaining few voters who dare to disagree with the majority and now, finally removes any incentive to even go to the polls. The majority owns 80% of our congressional delegation, 76% of the State Senate and 77% of the House. Now you are about to vote to squash what few remain out of your control, just because you can. Greed is destroying the American economy. And greed is about to destroy Utah democracy. Don't be surprised when nobody shows up to vote. What's the use?

Subject: In support of Fair Boundaries in Redistricting efforts...

Sir:

I am writing to encourage you to support the creation of Fair Boundaries in the State of Utah. Legislative Districts must not be gerrymandered. We must reverse the trend which has dis-served the public and our democracy. We need less partisan districts at the state and national levels.

We need to keep local communities of interest in tact as a voting block; otherwise, we risk the failure of democracy. You must respect the role of the individual voters to have a meaningful voice in selecting their representative.

We must restore the stature of politicians in society, and we can only do this when each of you act for the integrity of the system.

Please do the right thing; support rational and not partisan/political districting at the state and federal levels.

Thank you.

A License for Hair Braiding?

Should Utahns have to obtain a state license to do landscape architecture, paint nails or braid hair? The state currently requires professionals in these fields, and many others, to obtain a license to work here legally. Some state legislators would like to do away with these rules.

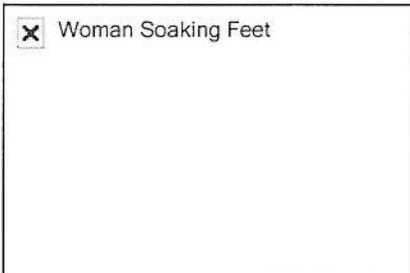

Watch the video report below to hear what Utah State Representative Holly Richardson (R-Pleasant Grove) and others have to say about it.

A license for hair braiding?

Not What This Woman Wants

I find myself grinding my teeth every time the "What A Woman Wants Show" billboards pop up around the Salt Lake Valley. The sales expo aimed at women is a legitimate event, the art on the billboards is cute, and there's nothing wrong with the services. What bothers me is the implication in the marketing: Women love nothing better than to shop and spend lots of time on their appearance.

UHSAA Rule Slams Door on Opportunities for Student

Earlier this year, we warned that the new transfer rule for student-athletes instituted by the Utah High School Activities Association (UHSAA) would discourage student-athletes from taking advantage of open enrollment. The recent case of Conner Martinez is one example of how this new rule penalizes students who want to attend the best school available to them.

Obama Jobs Plan: Math or Class Warfare?

During last Monday's press conference from the Rose Garden of the White House, President Obama used a nifty sound bite to describe his new jobs proposal. He said, "This is not class warfare, it's math." And then, it seems, he forgot the math and preached class warfare.

Is it math or class warfare when he says, "We shouldn't balance the budget on the backs of the poor and the middle class. ... For us to solve this problem, everybody, including the wealthiest Americans and biggest corporations, have to pay their fair share ... Middle class families shouldn't pay higher taxes than millionaires and billionaires"?

One More Hidden Cost of Welfare?

As we've noted before, government welfare programs generally carry a hidden cost beyond that paid by taxpayers - a cost paid by the recipients, in whom dependency and a loss of independence are fostered.

An interesting new study in the Journal of Family and Economic Issues suggests that dependency on government largesse may carry an additional cost, this one for recipient spouses. The study involves a survey of Utah couples and found: "Individuals that experienced the combination of earning less than $20,000 per year while receiving government assistance had significantly lower levels of overall marital satisfaction and commitment than individuals receiving government assistance with higher incomes and individuals who have never received government assistance."

Joel Briscoe - Lehi City Redistricting Resolution 2011

Subject: Lehi City Redistricting Resolution 2011

Please consider the enclosed resolution that Lehi City has adopted for the purpose of redistricting. Lehi City feels it is very important to be included in a whole district due to our size, and being the fastest growing city in Utah County.

Thank you for your consideration.

Mayor Bert Wilson
Lehi City
801-362-9999

RESOLUTION #: 2011-38

Lehi City 2011 Redistricting Resolution

Whereas, state governments redraw district boundaries every ten years based on the results of the most recent census and reapportionment results, and

Whereas, using results from the 2010 census, the Utah State Legislature is redrawing districts for the United States House of Representatives, the Utah House of Representatives, the Utah Senate, and the Utah State Board of Education, and

Whereas, redistricting ensures that each citizen's vote carries the same weight and preserves the ideal of "one person, one vote", and

Whereas, the Utah legislature has created a redistricting committee made up of legislators from around the state, and

Whereas, there has been established, fundamental core standards to which, the 2011 Redistricting Committee must adhere as they draw maps; namely

1. Congressional Districts must be nearly equal as practical with a deviation not greater than +/- .1%
2. State legislative districts and state school board districts must have substantial equality of population among the various districts with a deviation not greater than +/-3.5%.
3. Districts will be single member districts.
4. Plans will be drawn to create four Congressional Districts, 29 State Senate Districts, 75 State House Districts and 15 State School Board Districts.
5. In drawing districts, the official population enumeration of the 2010 decimal census will be used.
6. Districts will be contiguous and reasonably compact.

And whereas, the 2010 census tally found that total resident Utah population is 2,763,885, and

Whereas, the same census found that the total resident Lehi City population is 47,407, and

Whereas, the same census found that an ideal district size for a State Senate seat 95,306, for a State House seat 36,852, for a State School Board seat 184,259, and

Whereas, as mentioned above a redistricting plan must take into account traditional redistricting criteria such as compactness, contiguity, and respect for political subdivision lines and communities of interest, and

Whereas, Lehi City is clearly a reasonably compact, contiguous community of interest with political subdivision lines, and

Whereas, the way lines are drawn can keep a community together or split it apart, leaving it without a representative who feels responsible for its concerns, and

Whereas, the way lines are drawn can change who wins an election, and

Whereas, based on census criteria, Lehi City merits representation of 1 State Senate seat, and

Whereas, based on census criteria, Lehi City merits representation of 1 State House seat, and

Whereas, multiple preliminary redistricting proposals for State Senate and State House split up Lehi City in ways that significantly diminish its reasonably compact, contiguous community of interest with political subdivision lines,

Whereas, Lehi City has no direct representation in the State Senate and the State House despite being the third largest city in Utah County, and

Whereas, 2001 redistricting has caused Lehi City to be under represented in State government for the last 10 years, and

Whereas, in the interest of accountability and fairness, Lehi City's citizens merit representation of those who live in Lehi City.

Therefore, let it be resolved that Lehi City strongly urges the Utah Legislature and the 2011 Redistricting Committee to do the following:

Ensure that Lehi City receives one State Senate seat wholly inside Lehi City.

Ensure that Lehi City receives one State House seat wholly inside Lehi City.

Furthermore, let it be resolved that if Lehi City does not receive the representation it merits, we encourage Lehi City businesses, residents and government leaders to use all means at their disposal to fight for merited Lehi City representation.

Furthermore, be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of the redistricting committee and each member of elected and appointed leadership in both the Utah House and Senate, Governor Herbert and Utah County Commissioners.

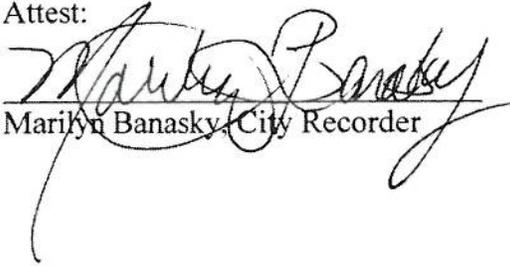

This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption.

Approved and Adopted by the City Council of Lehi City this 30th day of August, 2011.

Mayor Bert Wilson
Lehi City

Marilyn Banasky, City Recorder

I agree with the Speaker: good process makes for better results. I'm dismayed by the process, and lack of process, that has been used to create the Congressional map currently in front of the House. I'm in no hurry, and I will encourage the Democratic caucus to take all the time we need to look at any revisions proposed tomorrow that we haven't had time to adequately peruse. Thanks for your continued attention to this critical issue.

Rep. Joel Briscoe

>>> Represent Me Utah 10/16/11 2:25 PM >>>

Dear Representatives and Senators,

An article in the Deseret News (Saturday, Oct. 15, 2011) has us seriously concerned.

The general tone of the article is that the special session on Monday will be quick and that minds have already been made up. We would urge you to not act in haste. We know members are all aware that the Legislature is allowed up to thirty days to complete the redistricting task with a special session.

We recognize that the process of redistricting has been long and challenging, but to suggest that all discussion and examination of alternative maps is over seems premature. It's a disservice to the people of Utah, to not consider a map that will ensure the fairest representation.

The final map will serve the people of Utah for ten years. It deserves all the time and effort necessary to get the right map.

Represent Me Utah! Has been following the redistricting process since our first rally on a snowy day in April on the steps of the capitol. Our goal has been to raise public awareness of this important process, and we think we have achieved that goal. We have attended almost every Redistricting Committee meeting across the state and have kept the public updated. We have conducted many informal polls and surveys. In fact, we have a petition of over five thousand signatures from citizens concurring that they want to keep their communities together.

Again we implore you to act with caution and deliberation. Please be patience and tolerant in this last stretch of the process, especially when you hear the voices of a frustrated public. We have heard Speaker Lockhart eloquently state many times before, if the process is good, the product usually is also good. Please let the process continue without an unnecessary hurriedness.

Thank you for your public service,

Represent Me Utah!

Dear Legislators,

You are meeting this Monday, October 17, 2011 to finalize the redistricting map. The Utah Senate has passed the most equitable bill (redistricting plan).

Speaker Becky Lockhart is pushing two new plans to introduce tomorrow. You made a decision, now is not the time to make any changes or wavier on that decision. It is a good redistricting plan.

(*Early last year the Utah State Legislature made "last minute changes" to adopt a bill regarding illegal immigration and found themselves in hot water, with a bill that the citizens of Utah were greatly dissatisfied with.)

I respectfully request that you move forward, no further considerations and adopt the plan as accepted by the Utah Senate, today, Monday, October 17, 2011.

Please map the new districts with a mix of the people of the state of Utah for these reasons.

- 1 It benefits all Utahns to have four Congressmen with a stake in Salt Lake County instead of just one.
- 2 It benefits all Utahns to have four Congressmen who are advocates for rural Utah, particularly our public lands and natural resources instead of just one.
- 3 It benefits all Utahns to have four equally competitive Congressional Districts where a good candidate from either party has a chance to win.
- 4 We will maximize the quality of our candidates from both parties if we make all four districts as equal and as competitive as possible.
- 5 It is both equitable and wise to establish four, equal 60-40 districts rather than any one district made too heavily Republican or Democrat.
- 6) We are not interested in electing Congressmen who bring home the bacon for a specific community of interest, Republican or Democrat. We want Congressmen who will fight for a national balanced budget and preservation of American liberty, not pork.
- 7) The Democrats are going to file suit regardless of which map the Legislature adopts. It is irresponsible for a heavily Republican legislature to cede Democrats advantages that are literally harmful to our country and state and then take a PR whipping anyway.

Taxpayers paid a million dollars for a redistricting committee which was apparently used as a smoke screen to Republican gerrymandering plans. The arrogance of that party is astounding.

The maps are difficult to read on the computer but the looks of Gerber Citizen Map and the comments about it appear to me to be the best choice.

I urge you to vote against the Senate pizza plan, as well as the plan secretly drawn by Lockhart and associates. I think it is wrong to legitimize unethical practices as well as wasteful practices. Taxpayers paid a million dollars for a redistricting committee which was apparently used as a smoke screen to Republican gerrymandering plans. The arrogance of that party is astounding.

The maps are difficult to read on the computer but the looks of Gerber Citizen Map and the comments about it appear to me to be the best choice.

Dear Mr. Briscoe,

Please support the Congressional map sponsored by Representative Brian King that is a modification of the Garber Citizen Map. It splits Salt Lake County into only two, and Utah County into only two. So far this map comes closest to representing the makeup of Utah's citizens and communities.

Deborah,

The Republicans have 58 votes. They need 38 votes to pass a map. So far they have struggled to get a map that 38 Rs will support. We haven't found any Rs to date who will support a congressional district located solely within SL County. A few have expressed support for the Garber-King map. We'll see how many.

Hi Joel, I completely agree with you- if there is any option to get SL County as one district, go for it- but it was my understanding that that was not an option (although why not?) and that the Garber-King plan was no longer an option (again , why not?)

Thanks, I am sure you will do your best.

Alison,

Agreed. It was pure power politics. They brought out another new map that had not been vetted in public, and the Democrats had 20 minutes to look at the map before we were called down to the floor to vote on it. I spoke against the map and used the example of Rep. Rob Bishop, who has represented a large amount of SLC for the past 10 years since the last redistricting. 10 years ago they put a chunk of SLC into the 1st Congressional District so that every congressman had some urban, suburban, and rural. Has Rep. Bishop been sensitive to SLC issues? No. And quite frankly, why should he? Salt Lake City is an afterthought in his district. The heart of his district is Davis and Weber counties, and that's where he pays his attention. He doesn't need to pay attention to SLC to get re-elected.

Deja vu in 2011. The new map mostly keeps SLC together, but what do we have in common with North Salt Lake and Bountiful and Farmington? And St. George and Cedar City? SL County should only have been split twice. The Garber-King map only split three counties: Utah, Salt Lake, and Davis, and each of them was only split twice. It was defeated 21-50.

Thanks for writing.

Rep. Joel Briscoe

>>> Alison Mitchell <AMitchell@gsbsarchitects.com> 10/18/11 6:55 AM >>>

You people are unbelievable. You are as dysfunctional as the Republicans in Congress. Are you really so insecure that you feel the need to split up Salt Lake County, diluting the power of Jim Matheson's district? Matheson has done many good things for our state, and if the idea is to get the jackass Wimmer elected, you will be losing any protection we had in preserving our wild areas. Matheson currently represents the views and values of the people in his district. Wimmer would NOT represent the views of the people in SL County, in any way, shape, or form. Republicans control the state, without a doubt. This is even more obvious by the way this whole disgusting process has taken place...behind closed doors. I would have thought you'd learned your lesson with the (cringe) GRAMA debacle.

I agree with the Speaker: good process makes for better results. I'm dismayed by the process, and lack of process, that has been used to create the Congressional map currently in front of the House. I'm in no hurry, and I will encourage the Democratic caucus to take all the time we need to look at any revisions proposed tomorrow that we haven't had time to adequately peruse. >>> Represent Me Utah 10/16/11 2:25 PM >>>

Dear Representatives and Senators,

An article in the Deseret News (Saturday, Oct. 15, 2011) has us seriously concerned.

The general tone of the article is that the special session on Monday will be quick and that minds have already been made up. We would urge you to not act in haste. We know members are all aware that the Legislature is allowed up to thirty days to complete the redistricting task with a special session.

We recognize that the process of redistricting has been long and challenging, but to suggest that all discussion and examination of alternative maps is over seems premature. It's a disservice to the people of Utah, to not consider a map that will ensure the fairest representation.

The final map will serve the people of Utah for ten years. It deserves all the time and effort necessary to get the right map.

Represent Me Utah! Has been following the redistricting process since our first rally on a snowy day in April on the steps of the capitol. Our goal has been to raise public awareness of this important process, and we think we have achieved that goal. We have attended almost every Redistricting Committee meeting across the state and have kept the public updated. We have conducted many informal polls and surveys. In fact, we have a petition of over five thousand signatures from citizens concurring that they want to keep their communities together.

Again we implore you to act with caution and deliberation. Please be patience and tolerant in this last stretch of the process, especially when you hear the voices of a frustrated public. We have heard Speaker Lockhart eloquently state many times before, if the process is good, the product usually is also good. Please let the process continue without an unnecessary hurriedness.

Thank you for your public service,

Represent Me Utah!

John,

I think you've hit the nail on the head. SB 3002, passed by the Senate, and in front of the House, is, in my opinion, clearly drawn to benefit one particular member of the Utah House of Representatives. I believe that one congressional district should be entirely within SL County. After that, I like the Garber-King map, and some of the maps drawn by Sen. McAdams. Thanks for writing.

A last-second plea to not consider political careers in drawing the boundaries. To the victor, goes the spoils, it is said, and you may be of a mind it is quite within your right. Each person to his or her own opinion, and I certainly am wrong about enough in life, but, yes, to me, it strays from good ethics to allow politics and political careers to be a factor in the way the map is drawn. (Maps? I believe the only one left, is the congressional map. But, if the legislative maps have not been finalized, I am concerned about them, as well.) To the victor goes the spoils? And, therefore, you are but claiming what is yours? Is this no more of a thing than giving government posts to those of one's own party? It is a little more. In this case, if you adjust the boundaries to increase the chances of your party, or the odds for a particular possible candidate, you must change them away from what is best for the public. You must sacrifice the good of the public for the good of a politician. I mean no offense, but we elect you to serve us, the people, not to serve will of fellow political aspirants. Please, as you look at the six (or however many) choices, consider which of them have been drawn to forward a political career and opt not to support that plan.

Hello, Representative Briscoe,

I'm writing to you today to request that you please support democrats, independent, and even moderate republican voters in voting for one of the various "donut" hole maps for U.S. Congressional seats on 10/3/11. I have spent the summer attending field meetings and speaking up about redistricting on behalf of a "good government" group called Represent Me Utah. The RD committee requested voter input, and they received plenty during these meeting throughout the state, from media comments, polls, surveys, and maps contributed by citizens.

Unfortunately, it appears that they don't value the wants and needs of the voters that actually elected them into public service as the State Senate and House maps recently adopted by the RD Committee reveal clear examples of protection of GOP incumbents at the cost of citizens in Tooele and Utah counties, and northern areas of Salt Lake City.

Now I am very concerned about trusting the RD Committee to "do the right thing" about our four U.S. Congressional districts. The GOP super majority support a four way split our state would allow each of UT's Congressional representatives to have an urban/rural mix in their districts. They say it would be "good" to have a UT delegation where all are familiar with the public versus private use land issues. I say, "good" to have agreement among delegates in DC, but what is the message about public lands that UT citizens want their representatives to convey on behalf of their state?

Not this message.

Some citizens believe that GOP legislators are following the advice of big energy lobbyists who seek state sovereignty over federal public lands in Utah as quickly as possible for lucrative for drilling projects. The current lawsuit originating from Utah to the federal government disputing ownership of wilderness areas that goes back as far as Utah's statehood over 150 years ago is sufficient evidence that their stance on environmental and regulatory issues in UT is not consistent with the environmental concerns supported by some many Utahns. Likewise GOP unwillingness to identify for special protection any of the "wilderness jewels" in Utah when recently requested by the US Department of Interior. Did any of the county mayors, who also said "no" to this request, even poll their voters for public input before making such an important decision?

Voter input over the past four months supports the creation of 2-3 urban districts and 1-2 rural districts, the "donut" hole maps. Citizens, including those in southern Utah, spoke up in favor of have separate representatives for urban and rural areas because they want their representative to focus on local issues. The RD Committee refuses to acknowledge these polls/surveys and continues to express anecdotal and misleading versions of "No, voters don't really want that; We've heard differently" despite the public record! This is reason enough not to trust the GOP majority on the RD Committee. They talk a good game, but in the end they have the ability to do what they want if people don't protest sufficiently. Voters want Congressional representatives who advocate for what Utahns want, and we are not all part of the majority.

Districts in the densely populated urban Wasatch would not only protect our canyons and deserts from oil and gas drilling and fracking, it would also more adequately represent the needs of Utah citizens. So say the voters. Please support ethics and fairness in Utah politics.
