Subject: Update on Special Session

Colleagues,

Thank you for your patience this last week. I know it must be very frustrating to feel like you are constantly waiting for the majority caucus to meet and come to consensus. You have always been so gracious, and I personally appreciate all of you. I enjoy working with you, and look forward to seeing you on the morning of the 17th.

Representatives,

The governor made the call today for the special session we all knew was coming on Monday. I've attached a copy of the call, on which you'll notice are a number of minor issues also for your consideration. I've been strongly encouraged by your participation in the map drawing process and the flexibility and ingenuity you've shown.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to call me.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, since the adjournment of the 2011 General Session of the Fifty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Utah, matters have arisen that require immediate legislative attention;

WHEREAS, Article VII, Section 6 of the Constitution of the State of Utah provides that the Governor may, by proclamation, convene the Legislature into Special Session; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gary R. Herbert, Governor of the State of Utah, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the State of Utah, call the Fifty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Utah into a Third Special Session at the Utah State Capitol, in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 3rd day of October 2011, at 9:00 a.m., for the following purposes:

- (1) to divide the state into congressional, legislative and other districts pursuant to Utah Constitution Article IX and to address related matters;
- (2) to consider amendments to the Utah Labor Code to address requirements related to workers' compensation insurance for owners of certain entities and to make technical and related changes;
- (3) to consider amendments to the Elections Code to modify the requirements for placing presidential candidates on the regular primary ballot and to make technical and related changes;
- (4) to consider amendments to the Uniform Driver License Act to modify provisions relating to the driver license suspension period and other sentencing requirements for certain alcohol or drug related offenses and to make technical and related changes;
- (5) to consider amendments to the State System of Higher Education Code to modify the requirements for the appointment of representatives of less populous counties to the Board of Regents and to make technical and related changes;
- (6) to consider a concurrent resolution recognizing the 75th Anniversary of the Welfare System of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints;

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Utah. Done at the

From: Joel Briscoe
To: AMitchell@gbsbsarchitects.com
Date: 10/18/2011 2:12 PM
Subject: Re: Gerrymandering

Alison,

Agreed. It was pure power politics. They brought out another new map that had not been vetted in public, and the Democrats had 20 minutes to look at the map before we were called down to the floor to vote on it. I spoke against the map and used the example of Rep. Rob Bishop, who has represented a large amount of SLC for the past 10 years since the last redistricting. 10 years ago they put a chunk of SLC into the 1st Congressional District so that every congressman had some urban, suburban, and rural. Has Rep. Bishop been sensitive to SLC issues? No. And quite frankly, why should he? Salt Lake City is an afterthought in his district. The heart of his district is Davis and Weber counties, and that's where he pays his attention. He doesn't need to pay attention to SLC to get re-elected.

Deja vu in 2011. The new map mostly keeps SLC together, but what do we have in common with North Salt Lake and Bountiful and Farmington? And St. George and Cedar City? SL County should only have been split twice. The Garber-King map only split three counties: Utah, Salt Lake, and Davis, and each of them was only split twice. It was defeated 21-50.

Thanks for writing.

Rep. Joel Briscoe

>>> Alison Mitchell <AMitchell@gbsbsarchitects.com> 10/18/11 6:55 AM >>>

You people are unbelievable. You are as dysfunctional as the Republicans in Congress. Are you really so insecure that you feel the need to split up Salt Lake County, diluting the power of Jim Matheson's district? Matheson has done many good things for our state, and if the idea is to get the jackass Wimmer elected, you will be losing any protection we had in preserving our wild areas. Matheson currently represents the views and values of the people in his district. Wimmer would NOT represent the views of the people in SL County, in any way, shape, or form. Republicans control the state, without a doubt. This is even more obvious by the way this whole disgusting process has taken place...behind closed doors. I would have thought you'd learned your lesson with the (cringe) GRAMA debacle.

I want you to know I appreciate your efforts. Also, I wrote the Governor this morning, encouraging him to veto this unfair map. I brought up the specter of GRAMA and the embarrassment it caused everyone, not to mention the taxpayer dollars spent trying to back track.

Thanks again,

This new district is critical for us to finally get a true Democrat representing us. Please support the Garber/King Map, which is the fairest map that has been presented so far. I did go to a meeting last friday about this and saw all of the maps presented. Believe me, if the Froerer map or anything else that divides up Salt Lake County like a swastika is voted in, there will be a war!

Taxpayers paid a million dollars for a redistricting committee which was apparently used as a smoke screen to Republican gerrymandering plans. The arrogance of that party is astounding.

The maps are difficult to read on the computer but the looks of Gerber Citizen Map and the comments about it appear to me to be the best choice.
