Thank you for submitting a proposed redistricting plan through Utah's online redistricting tool. Please note that all plans submitted will be made available for review by the Redistricting Committee and the general public on both the online tool and redistrictutah.com. Shortly after plans are submitted, they are posted on redistrictutah.com for public comment.

As time allows, the public can further discuss submitted plans during the public comment portion of future Redistricting Committee meetings. A full list of public meetings can be found at redistrictutah.com.

If you have any questions regarding submitted plans or technical issues with the online tool, email us at redistrictutah@utah.gov.

What would happen, population-wise, if you included all of Salt Lake City in the district to the east by moving the boundary to include SLC's northwest and southwest quadrants, and then equalize that population shift by moving Midvale, and the rest of Taylorsville, West Jordan, and South Jordan into the district to the west (there is an area along I-15 that is in the east district.

Would that work? I think it would be a better solution, though I think your drawing is the best I've seen yet!

Let me know what you think.
